WHOEVER YOU ARE.
HOWEVER YOU HAVE COME.
YOU ARE WELCOME HERE.

“So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us;”
2 Corinthians 5:17-20

Beloved people of God, our missional nature as the church has been on my heart a lot recently, and so has this scripture passage. We all have our favorite scripture passages, our ‘canon within the canon of Scripture’ as one of my professors so aptly put it, and for me this passage from 2 Corinthians is one of those favorites of mine. When I run through the repertoire of scriptures that are meaningful, challenging, and continue to speak to me this always rises to the surface. When I mention our missional nature as the church I mean something very specific that I want to expand on a bit here. When I use the term missional I mean by it what has been popularized by the Gospel in our Culture network authors and theologians when they speak of the mission of God to the world (the overarching plan and purpose of God) and I am not meaning missionaries (the people we campaign for and send money to) called to specific service in the world.

Mission—these authors, theologians, and myself suggest—is about understanding what God’s plan and purpose are for the world; God’s mission to the world that God so loves. So to be missional in this sense is to recognize what God’s mission to the world is, and as the church join in that mission where God has already been showing up. We might say that God’s mission was to create life and humanity ‘to serve God and enjoy God continually’ as Westminster Confession says, or we could say that God was about blessing the particular for the sake of the whole much like the covenant blessing and promise given to Abraham when God says “I will make you an ancestor of many nations; I will set up my covenant with you and with your descendants after you.”

For me the clearest expression of the mission of God, and our missional nature of the church comes from this passage in 2 Corinthians. Especially the last part above, “that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us...” God’s plan here is one of reconciliation, of making relationships right and whole. I believe God’s intention in the beginning of time was always relationship with the creation God made, and even when it goes wrong because of sin; God’s plan is still to have relationship with all God has made.

Friends I believe this means we as God’s people must take up that ministry of reconciliation. We are God’s ambassadors. I like that notion. An ambassador is someone who is an official representative; as Christ’s followers I like to think that we are those official representatives of God’s love and God’s plan for humanity. As an ambassador we show up and represent the best of God’s love and care for the world. I believe we can agree that an ambassador who stays at home isn’t a very good ambassador. Bob Goff became a consulate for Uganda, and as such he had to be able to show up and be a representative for human rights and God in the country. Through the book Love Does that we are starting the book study on, Bob was able to provide education by building schools, and stop certain practices that were leading to the trafficking and death of children by witch doctors in Uganda. It is and was an act of reconciliation and work towards justice in the world.

How are we willing as the church in America to be ‘ministers of reconciliation’ in the world? How are we willing to be ambassadors for God and for the Gospel of God’s love and forgiveness? What small step could you take today to make one relationship in your life better and more healthy? The challenge for us joining in God’s mission is less about knowing what to do, and more about having the courage to show up and let our love be shown in action. Our love cannot remain a stated and stagnant card on the wall, but must be proved in our lives by the things we do. God showed up in the person of Jesus and reconciled us by a profound action of death and resurrection; we must be willing to show up in profound ways to bring about love for the world.

(read more about it here: <https://bibleproject.com/about/>), bi-monthly we will explore topics relevant to today to help all of us "experience the Bible in a way that is approachable, engaging, and transformative."

“For once you were darkness, but now in the Lord you are light. Live as children of light—” ~Ephesians 5:8

You will explore each topic by listening to a short audio (~6 min), watching a short video (~6 min), doing scripture reading (~10 min) and answering 3-4 discussion questions. Then we will come together for a 1 hour zoom session to discuss our answers to the questions and support each other as we all deepen our understanding of our own faith.

PER CAPITA 2021

Per capita for 2021 is $35.14 per member. Per capita is a fixed annual expense of our church to support the work of our Presbytery, Synod and General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church USA. If possible, we ask you to please make a contribution to support these important works. Member support for this cost is greatly appreciated any time in 2021.

FROM THE WORSHIP COMMITTEE

Beautifying the sanctuary for worship:

The Worship Committee knows that most folks enjoy having the sanctuary look beautiful for worship and part of that is the floral arrangements that we have had over the years. For that reason we would like to offer everyone the opportunity to provide flowers on any given Sunday and that can be done in honor or memory of someone special in your life.

For each communion Sunday, the first Sunday of each month, we would like to have living arrangements or plants provided. To do that we would ask that any interested person sign up using our online “Signup Genius” platform. You can click on this link and it will take you directly to the website to sign up for any given Sunday. While our goal is to have live arrangements on the first Sunday of each month, if you would like to provide them for any other Sunday, that request would not be refused.

“But the word of God continued to advance and gain adherents.” ~Acts 12:24

---

If you do sign up, please indicate in the comments section of SignUp Genius what you would like done with the arrangement after the service is over. For example: “I will be in church to take the arrangement home with me.” Or, “Please donate my arrangement to a ‘shut in’ person.” We also can accept up to 2 floral arrangements per Sunday if someone else has already signed up on a particularly special Sunday that you would like to have flowers in church.

As an alternative, we would like to purchase some different “silk” arrangements to have for the Sundays that there are no live arrangements given. For that we would ask anyone willing to please offer a donation of whatever amount you may feel called to give and send that into through your favorite giving medium earmarked for “silk floral arrangements.”

Thank you in advance,
The Worship Committee

Have you noticed the praise banners on each side of the pulpit?

Liturgical colors signify a time or event in the life of the church. The worship committee has been displaying these colors regularly and would like to express their meaning more formally with banners. We are hoping that YOU, members of the congregation would like to sponsor one banner or a set of banners. Call a friend and you can each buy one to make a set. Right now we are looking to fulfill the yearly Liturgical calendar. As of now we have the Lenten season (displayed right now) in the stained glass series which works well with our church architecture. We also have a set for the ordinary WW times which is the green stained glass set in the series. We hope to round the year out with sponsorship of (2) Advent, (2) Christmas, (2) Palm Sunday, and (2) Easter banners. In the future we look forward to offering more opportunities of sponsorship to celebrate church life.

*The banners are $39.00 each and right now the company is offering 20% discount and free shipping. *If you would like to sponsor a set of banners or one banner please contact the church office.

Banners are 18"x5" long skinny version is what we are using.
Palms left and right side options for Palm Sunday
Candle(2) needed for advent
Poinsettia (2) needed for Christmas Eve/day.
Manger and Angel set for up to Epiphany Sunday
Crown of Thorns left and right Easter Sunday up to Pentecost.

We're looking forward to your help to freshening up our sanctuary.

Thank you,

The Worship Committee
