FROM PASTOR COLIN

A Congregational Check Up

Once a year people are encouraged to go to their doctor and have what is known as a well visit annual physical. Here we get checked for what is all good and get an honest assessment of what might need to be improved for our health. These visits are so important because they can detect potential problems before they are critical issues, and they help us acknowledge what we are doing well. There can be some anxiety about being honest, and there can be some great blessings in choosing to be so.

The Vital Congregations Initiative our congregation is taking part in serves us much the same way as a good annual physical. We get to take a real look at what is going well, and where we might benefit from some focused care.

Over the course of the next year we will be assessing ourselves on the follow seven marks of Vital Congregations:

- I. Lifelong Discipleship Formation
- II. Intentional Authentic Evangelism
- III. Outward Incarnational Focus
- IV. Empowering Servant Leadership
- V. Spirit-Inspired Worship
- VI. Caring Relationships
- VII. Ecclesial Health

Thank you for being a part of the body of Christ in this place and joining in the journey to being even more vital as a congregation.

Peace be with you all,
Pastor Colin

FROM ALFRED APPIAH– MINISTRY INTERN

What would you say to someone if they aspired to be a leader “just like David”? What are the marks of a great leader? Would you vote for David if he were running for president?

I asked this question in my Old Testament class this week. As I reflect on what to write for the November newsletter, I thought this question is very appropriate and timely for all Americans and Ghanaians who go to the polls to cast their vote. In response to the question, Dr Bill Brown, avers which David do you have in mind? There are many to choose from in the Bible. The murderer who takes what he can get? The David who holds a political grudge and instructs his son to carry out what he would not fulfil? Or the David whose trust in God brings him to constant confession and prayer? The David who knows distress firsthand from being on the run and counts himself among the “poor and needy” (Psalms 70:5; 86:1)?

“For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope.”

~Jeremiah 29:11

Lukas Mburu, one of my colleagues added, David depicts both desirable and undesirable characters of leadership. On the one hand, David is hard-working (1Sam. 16:11); he does not consider himself as the absolute one, he admits to having sinned (2Sam 12:13); he consults and takes advice (2Sam. 7: 1-12). On the other hand, as revealed in taking Bathsheba and killing Uriah, he is greedy, selfish, and scheming to defeat justice. I wonder how many people die for a king (political figures) to have their ways? I bet they are many.

The mark of a great leader, Dr Brown contended is humility—great leaders never think of themselves as above the law—They have a high view not of themselves but of service to others, the people whom they represent. Such humility relies on the counsel of others (let us include scientists here), those who are not just “yes men.” Lucas concluded; I uphold that earthly kingship is a necessary evil to society. Moreover, a prophetic voice must keep checks on it regardless of who occupies the highest political office. That is, whether that person portrays the character of an angel, without restraints by the prophetic edge, that person will make people pay dearly. Nevertheless, I will vote for David and hope that I will discharge my duty as “Nathan” without fear or favour.

As we go to the polls, we must prayerfully seek to elect a leader who cares for the weak and marginalized in our society, the leader who leads by example, the leader who united his people like David who established an everlasting dynasty and united the people of Israel. May God grant, America, Ghana and all other nations that go through elections this year peace.

“First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, <sup>2</sup>for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity.”

You can make a food donation by dropping food off at 185 North Main St Canandaigua (contact Jay @ 953-1108 for instructions), mail gift cards to same address, or make a monetary donation on-line at familypromiseontariocounty.org. FPOC now has 3 emergency shelter apartments that are housing 3 families in need. All apartments are within walking distance of the Day Center. We are providing case management remotely when we can or in person using social distancing when necessary. Our partner congregations are continuing to assist our guests with groceries, virtual tutoring and support.

We plan to return to our regular rotational model some time in 2021 when it is safe to do so.

GENEROSITY CAMPAIGN 2020

On November 1st, our fellowship celebrated the generosity of the community that supports God's ministry here at the First Presbyterian Church in Victor.

By now, you should have received your Generosity Campaign materials. We hope you have had a chance to review them, and that you are excited about the ministry commitments we are making, and the direction we are taking. Participating in Family Promise and diving deep into the Vital Congregations Initiative (VCI) program are both the fulfillment of long-held hopes for our community. Please consider the transformational potential of your participation in these ministries.

If you have not had the opportunity to complete your pledge card, please do so. We value your support of the ministry and witness of FPCV in 2020. Please review the generosity campaign materials, take a moment to pray, imagine the benefits of investing in your faith and study, and then respond as you are led by the Spirit.

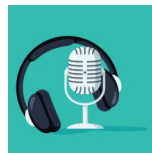

Pledge cards can be mailed into the office, emailed into the office or treasurer, called into Pastor Colin, or brought into worship.

Thanks again and together may we be blessed to be a blessing for the world.

Generosity Team & Pastor Colin

Even a seemingly small act of generosity can grow into something far beyond what we could ever ask or imagine (Ephesians 3:20)--the creation of a community of love in this world, and beyond this world, because wherever love grows, it is stronger than death (1 Corinthians 13:8). So when we give ourselves to planting and nurturing love here on earth, our efforts will reach out beyond our own chronological existence. Indeed, if we raise funds for the creation of a community of love, we are helping God build the kingdom. We are doing exactly what we are supposed to do as Christians. Paul is clear about this: "Make love your aim"
